

Kobasa Awarded First Feldman Scholarship

The first Springfield High School Casey Feldman Memorial Scholarship has been awarded to Christy Kobasa. The scholarship was established to honor the memory of Casey Feldman, a 2006 graduate of Springfield High School who died last July after being struck by a van while crossing a street in Ocean City, N.J. Scholarship recipient Christy Kobasa, who was awarded $3,000, will be attending St. Joseph's University this fall. Theater director John Gildea (left) announced the award at the SHS Class of 2010 Honors Reception on June 2. Casey Feldman's parents, Dianne Anderson and Joel Feldman, presented the award.
