

Two OCHS Seniors Win Casey Feldman Scholarship

Shannon Allen and Stephanie Dennison receive awards named for a young woman who was struck and killed by a car as she walked to work in 2009.

By Douglas Bergen | Email the author | June 21, 2011

Shannon Allen and Stephanie Dennison are pictured here with Ocean City High School TV/Media teacher Gregory Wheeldon (back right) and Ocean City Police Department Traffic Safety Unit Supervisor Brian Hopely. Credit Ocean City Police Department

Ocean City High School seniors Shannon Allen and Stephanie Dennison recently received two scholarships totaling $500.

The scholarships honor of Casey Feldman who was tragically struck and killed by a distracted motorist in July 2009 while she was walking to work in Ocean City.

The awards are sponsored by Bob's Grill (14th and the Boardwalk) in Ocean City and PBA Local No. 61. Both students graduated June 16, and they were awarded the scholarships for their work in the production of public safety messages addressing pedestrian safety and distracted driving.